Evangelical Free Church Association Affiliation

EFCA Statement of Faith

Comment [GJG1]: Scripture references were added throughout the EFCA Statement of Faith

Adopted by the Conference on June 26, 2008

The Evangelical Free Church of America is an association of autonomous churches united around these theological convictions:

God

1. We believe in one God, Creator of all things, holy, infinitely perfect, and eternally existing in a loving unity of three equally divine Persons: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Having limitless knowledge and sovereign power, God has graciously purposed from eternity to redeem a people for Himself and to make all things new for His own glory. \(Genesis 1:1-2; Matthew 1:22-23; John 1:1; 5:17-18; 10:30; 14:15-26; 16:7-15\)

The Bible

2. We believe that God has spoken in the Scriptures, both Old and New Testaments, through the words of human authors. As the verbally inspired Word of God, the Bible is without error in the original writings, the complete revelation of His will for salvation, and the ultimate authority by which every realm of human knowledge and endeavor should be judged. Therefore, it is to be believed in all that it teaches, obeyed in all that it requires, and trusted in all that it promises. \(2 Timothy 3:16-17; 2 Peter 1:20-21; Matthew 5:18\)

The Human Condition

3. We believe that God created Adam and Eve in His image \(Genesis 1:27\), but they sinned when tempted by Satan \(Genesis 3\). In union with Adam, human beings are sinners by nature and by choice, alienated from God, and under His wrath \(Romans 5:12-21\). Only through God's saving work in Jesus Christ can we be rescued, reconciled and renewed \(John 3:5-8\).

Jesus Christ

4. We believe that Jesus Christ is God incarnate, fully God \(John 1:1\) and fully man \(Hebrews 2:14\), one Person in two natures. Jesus—Israel's promised Messiah—was conceived through the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary \(Luke 1:34-35\). He lived a sinless life, was crucified under Pontius Pilate \(1 Corinthians 15:3; Hebrews 7:27\), arose bodily from the dead \(John 20:24-29\), ascended into heaven \(Acts 1:1-9\) and sits at the right hand of God the Father \(Colossians 3:1\) as our High Priest and Advocate \(Hebrews 7:25-26; 1 John 2:1\).

The Work of Christ

5. We believe that Jesus Christ, as our representative and substitute, shed His blood on the cross as the perfect, all-sufficient sacrifice for our sins \(Hebrews 9:22-28, Romans 4:25\). His atoning death and victorious resurrection constitute the only ground for salvation (John 1:10-13; 6:37-40; Ephesians 1:13-14).

The Holy Spirit

6. We believe that the Holy Spirit, in all that He does, glorifies the Lord Jesus Christ. He convicts the world of its guilt (John 16:7-15). He regenerates sinners (John 3:5-8), and in Him they are baptized into union with Christ and adopted as heirs in the family of God. He also indwells (1 Corinthians 12:13), illuminates, guides (John 14:26), equips and empowers believers for Christ-like living and service (Ephesians 5:18-21).

The Church

7. We believe that the true church comprises all who have been justified by God's grace through faith alone in Christ alone. They are united by the Holy Spirit in the body of Christ, of which He is the Head (Colossians 1:18-22). The true church is manifest in local churches, whose membership should be composed only of believers (1 Corinthians 1:2; Acts 2:47b). The Lord Jesus mandated two ordinances, baptism and the Lord's Supper, which visibly and tangibly express the gospel (Matthew 28:19-20, 1 Corinthians 11:23-26). Though they are not the means of salvation (Ephesians 2:8), when celebrated by the church in genuine faith, these ordinances confirm and nourish the believer.

Christian Living

8. We believe that God's justifying grace must not be separated from His sanctifying power and purpose (Ephesians 2:10). God commands us to love Him supremely and others sacrificially (Mark 12:30-31), and to live out our faith with care for one another (1 Thessalonians 5:11, 15), compassion toward the poor (James 1:27) and justice for the oppressed. With God's Word, the Spirit's power, and fervent prayer in Christ's name (Ephesians 6:10-18), we are to combat the spiritual forces of evil. In obedience to Christ's commission, we are to make disciples among all people (Matthew 28:19), always bearing witness to the gospel (Acts 1:8) in word and deed (Matthew 5:13-16).

Christ's Return

9. We believe in the personal (Acts 1:11), bodily and premillennial (Revelation 19:19-20:6) return of our Lord Jesus Christ. The coming of Christ (Mark 13:33-37; Revelation 22:20), at a time known only to God, demands constant expectancy and, as our blessed hope, motivates the believer to godly living, sacrificial service and energetic mission (Titus 2:11-14).

Response and Eternal Destiny

10. We believe that God commands everyone everywhere to believe the gospel by turning to Him in repentance and receiving the Lord Jesus Christ. We believe that God will raise the dead bodily and judge the world (Revelation 20:7-15), assigning the unbeliever to condemnation and eternal conscious punishment and the believer to eternal blessedness and joy with the Lord (1 Corinthians 15:51-53; 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18) in the new heaven and the new earth, to the praise of His glorious grace. Amen.

Article XVI. ~~Article XVII.~~ Discipline

The New Testament clearly teaches that the church is to be a community of support, nurture, service, and also discipline. Admonishing one another is an important component of Christian love as depicted in the Bible. We believe that admonition based on nothing more than personal opinion is presumptuous and arrogant. However, with the Word of God, we have a basis for correcting each other, and such correction, when practiced in a spirit of grace and acceptance, has life-transforming power. Thus, Paul says, "And concerning you, my brethren, I myself also am convinced that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, and able also to admonish one another" (Romans 15:14).

Discipline shall be exercised in accordance with the principles stated in Matthew 18:15-20, Titus 3:10-11, and 1 Corinthians 5:1-13. It will be exercised for the purpose of maintaining the purity of the church both doctrinally and morally. This is to be done with the intent of restoring a fallen brother or sister (Galatians 6:1). Biblical discipline as outlined in Matthew 18:16 derives from the Old Testament principles found in Deuteronomy 19:15-20. To that end, church discipline must be careful to adhere to those principles. Evidence of sinful behavior must be established by two or three witnesses. After the allegations are brought to the Elder Team, it is the responsibility of the Elders to make a thorough investigation and determination of the facts. If the allegations are found to be untrue, then the Elders shall seek repentance from the accusers. If the accusers are not repentant of their actions and decline to make appropriate reparations as determined by the Elders, then the church discipline process shall be administered with those persons.

When a person is in need of restoration, it can be painful and overwhelming. Crossroads Evangelical Free Church has chosen to come alongside those suffering the consequences of their sin by offering support and guidance through a carefully guided process of restoration. It is our intent that through this restoration process a person may find renewal and restoration to God, family, and the body of Christ. It ensures that the person seeking renewal, the restoration team and the church as a whole share a mutual understanding of what is to take place. We serve and trust in a God who has repeatedly shown He is capable of redeeming the most difficult and desperate of situations. It is with confidence in God's ability and obedience to God's will that through restoration we will be able to see the Lord's finished work and rejoice in renewal through Christ (source: Ben Cachiaras, Mountain Christian Church, Joppa, Maryland).

Who Does It?<sup>1</sup>

- It begins with a Christian who cares (Matthew 18:15-20).
- It calls for Christian leaders who are spiritually mature (Galatians 6:1-5; Hebrews 13:17; 2 Timothy 4:1-5).

A team of three (3) people consisting of at least one Pastor or Elder shall constitute a restoration team. If any Member shall conduct himself in a manner which is not in harmony with Scriptural principles, they shall be interviewed and counseled by the group as indicated in the Word of God (Matthew 18:15-17; Galatians 6:1). Love will be the sole motivating force in these interviews with restoration of the member being the ideal goal.

If, however, the Member should choose to continue their unrepentant condition, the restoration team shall recommend to the Elder Team that the Member be deprived of their membership. Should the Elder Team agree, that Member will be dropped from the membership ~~and this action shall be reported to the church at its next Congregational Meeting.~~

Comment [GJG25]: This statement does not work very well for a larger church. Most members likely won't know the individual, or at least the details of the situation.

- It demands a congregation that has a conscience about sin and a concern for souls. "Where Christians live together, the time must inevitably come when in some crisis one person will have to declare God's Word and will to another....The basis upon which Christians can speak to one another is that one knows the other as a sinner, who, with all his human dignity is lonely and lost if he is not given help" (source: Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Life Together, 105).

Who Requires It?

- The immoral Member who refuses to repent (1 Corinthians 5:1-11).
- The self-seeking Member who causes division (Romans 16:17-18; Titus 3:10-11).
- The deceptive Member who teaches false doctrine (2 John 7:11; 1 Timothy 1:18-20).
- The idle Member who does not obey apostolic authority (2 Thessalonians 3:6-15).

Why Is It Necessary?

- Our love for Christ requires that we preserve the moral integrity of the Christian community.
- Our love for the church requires that we recognize the effects of sin and refuse to condone it for the sake of our witness before a watching world.
- Our love for the erring Christian requires that we seek the redemption of the offender by confronting them with the need for repentance and complete surrender to Christ's lordship.

"There is no such thing in a church of Christ as freedom to say and do those things which are not in harmony with the will of Christ or with the guidance of the Holy Spirit revealed in the Scriptures" (source: James DeForest Murch, The Free Church, 65).

Why Is It So Difficult?

- It is done in a cultural context of individualism, independence, and isolation that are substitutes for the intimacy of true Christian community.
- It demands that we hold in tension the love of God and the holiness of God; grace and truth; the readiness of God's people to accept the way of holiness and the reluctance to confront unholiness in others at the risk of happiness.

How Should It Be Carried Out?

- The attitude should reflect our desire always to save never to sever; to be redemptive not destructive (1 Corinthians 5:5; James 5:19-20).
- The approach should reflect our desire to keep a matter as private as possible for as long as possible and our persistence to leave nothing untried to lead one to repentance for the purpose of restoration not retribution (Matthew 18:15-17).
  - The sinning person should be first confronted privately, without other consultation.
  - Confrontation must be very clear, with clearly state goals.
  - The circle of informed persons is enlarged only for the sake of redemption.
- The action taken should fit the offense (private or public) and merely confirm what the offender has done by their actions (Matthew 18:17-20).
  - A spirit of gentleness must prevail.
  - While working for restoration, intentional alienation may be necessary.
  - Repentance is a source of joy for all, with restoration to be as complete as possible.

What's Next?

- The church must be ready to restore the repentant (2 Corinthians 2:5-11; 7:8-13)
  - "Forgive them."
  - "Comfort him."
  - "Reaffirm your love to him."

Article XVIII. Positional Statements

Section 18.01 Policy on Marriage and Human Sexuality

Introduction

This is a policy statement on the beliefs of Crossroads Evangelical Free Church regarding religious beliefs concerning marriage and human sexuality and our policies based upon the necessary application of our faith to life and practice.

What We Believe About Marriage and Human Sexuality

We believe, based on the teaching of the Scriptures in both the Old and New Testaments, that marriage is an institution ordained by God from the foundation of the world, and intended as a lifelong union of one man and one woman. This idea is supported by the account of creation in Genesis chapters 1 and 2. Genesis 1:26-28 provides that God created man in His own image, both male and female. The passage implies that a unity of one man and one woman is in some way necessary to fully represent the image of God in mankind.

Genesis chapter 2 provides a more detailed account in which God created the first man, Adam, and decided that it was not good for him to be alone. (Genesis 2:18). God indicated that He would make “a suitable helper for him.” God brought all of the animals to Adam, but none of them was a suitable helper for him, so God then created Eve, the first woman, from part of Adam himself. God did not create a second man to be Adam’s helpmate, or an assortment of multiple women, but rather one woman. Together they were man and wife and had “no shame” or sin in their union with each other. (Genesis 2:15-25).

Jesus, the fully divine and fully human incarnation of God, the Second Person of the Trinity, reaffirmed the teaching of the Old Testament when He said, as recorded in Matthew 19:4-6, “Haven’t you read, he replied, that at the beginning the creator made them male and female and said for this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife and the two will become one flesh. So they are no longer two, but one. Therefore what God has joined together, let not man separate.”

The Apostle Paul, writing authoritatively under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, states in Ephesians 5:22-32 that marriage is not merely a human institution, but is a special divine metaphor that is supposed to illustrate the union of Christ and the Church. For this reason also, only a union between a man and a woman can be a proper marriage because a union between two men, two women, or one man and multiple women or any collection of people could not properly illustrate the relationship between Christ and His church.

I Corinthians 6:9-11 condemns a variety of lifestyles including those associated with adultery, prostitution, and homosexuality. The Bible condemns all forms of sexual immorality and encourages Christians to flee from it because of its destructive effects, and because the body of the Christian is the temple of the Holy Spirit. (I Corinthians 3:16 & 6:12-20).

Comment [GJG26]: Addendums – this section is being added as a place for us to place “positional statements” we may want to add to the Constitution. Per legal advice, we are adding Crossroad’s “Statement on Marriage and Human Sexuality”.

Romans 1:18-32 makes it clear that it is not only sinful to engage in homosexual unions, but also to approve of such sins in others or encourage their practice. Therefore, same sex attraction (whether believed that one is born with these desires or they have developed over time due to experience) is viewed as a matter of the heart and understood to be a distortion of sexuality as God created it. As a result, in order to maintain our consistent Christian witness, we cannot sanction, approve, or promote in any way adultery, fornication (a sexual relationship between an unmarried man and woman; i.e. "living together"), pornography, pedophilia, polyamory, polygamy, bestiality, or homosexual unions. This is made clear also by countless other verses throughout the Old Testament as well as by these and other passages in the New Testament.

Our church follows what the Bible reveals as the "sure foundation" of the teachings of Jesus Christ and his apostles (Matthew 7:24-29 and I Corinthians 14:37). The church is called to teach and practice these teachings and is not at liberty to depart from them for a different authority if it is to authentically bear the name "Christian." Though we strive to live peaceably with all people and to obey legitimate government authority, in instances involving matters as foundational as marriage we must ultimately obey God rather than man if the two come into conflict (Acts 4:18-22).

Sexual activities outside of marriage, including but not limited to fornication, adultery, incest, homosexuality, pedophilia, polyamory and bestiality are inconsistent with the teachings of the Bible and the church. Lewd conduct, transgender behavior and the creation, distribution or viewing of pornography are incompatible with God's intention. God's intention is clear in Hebrews 13:4, "Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the marriage bed be undefiled, for God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterous."

Our Faith Based Policy on Marriage and Human Sexuality

As a result of these above described religious beliefs and our belief in the need for a practice of fidelity to these beliefs, it is our policy that the facilities of this church may not be used for any ceremony that in any way approves of, solemnizes, supports or allows a same-sex union or a polygamist or any union which, in the judgment of the Elder Team, in some way constitutes child abuse. It is also the policy of the church that no pastor or member of the church staff shall officiate at any ceremony designed to solemnize, promote, create, or approve of such a union. Nor may any member of the church enter into such a union without being subject to church discipline.

A civil government's sanction of a union will be recognized as a legitimate marriage by the church only to the extent that it is consistent with the definition of marriage found in this Policy Statement.

CROSSROADS POLICY REGARDING SEXUALITY

Recognizing that we all struggle with sin, Crossroads Church will provide an environment that welcomes people who struggle with sexual sin. We will seek to love all people in Jesus' name, pointing them towards Christ's power to forgive and heal. The Bible teaches that those who engage in sexual sin, sin against their own body. We also recognize that sexual sin is not characterized in Scripture as being more severe than other forms of sin. We will seek God to discern ways that we can directly and indirectly minister and share God's love with those who struggle with every kind of sin. We also recognize that there is a difference between temptation and behavior and while temptation is sometimes unavoidable we are responsible for our behavior. (March 2014)
